

Kentucky Citizen Foster Care Review Boards

2022 Training for Potential CFCRB Volunteers

Thousands of Kentucky children enter foster care each year due to dependency, neglect and abuse. Citizen Foster Care Review Board are teams of court-appointed volunteers who make a difference in the lives of these children by reviewing their cases and making recommendations to state courts and the Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services. The boards focus on ensuring the children's needs are met while they are in care and that they are placed in safe, permanent homes as quickly as possible.

Individuals interested in volunteering must submit an application, consent to criminal record and Central Registry checks and complete an initial six-hour training session.

2022 Training

Initial training will take place via Zoom. Volunteers must attend two Zoom meetings and complete a self-paced training to meet the certification requirements for appointment. - Dependency, neglect and abuse case forms
- Process for conducting a review
- Mental health issues of children in out-of-home care

Once a potential volunteer has completed the background checks and training, a recommendation is made to the chief judge of the local Family Court or District Court for the volunteer to be appointed to the local CFCRB.
