

Kentucky Citizen Foster Care Review Boards
Working for Kentucky's Future - Our Children

Public invited to discuss foster care system at virtual town hall meetings in June

The public is invited to attend virtual town hall meetings in June to talk about improving outcomes for Kentucky children and families involved with the foster care system. The meetings will take place June 9, 11, 16 and 18. Anyone with an interest in making the foster care system better is encouraged to attend.

Local Citizen Foster Care Review Boards statewide are hosting the regional meetings and will lead discussions on how to strengthen Kentucky's families with children who may soon enter or who are already in the foster care system. Topics include services to help keep families together and reunite families with children in out-of-home care. The meeting will also address assistance for young people who have reached the age of transitioning out of foster care.

The meeting will include time for open discussion. Due to confidentiality, specific cases will not be discussed.

Findings from the meetings will be reported to the Kentucky Citizen Foster Care Review Board and will be included in the CFCRB's annual recommendations to the Supreme Court of Kentucky, the governor and legislature.

Regional meetings are among the reforms called for in House Bill 1, the adoption and foster care legislation passed in 2018 to improve outcomes for children in out-of-home care.
