Upon recommendation of the Judges of the 16th Judicial Circuit, Kenton County Family Court, and being otherwise sufficiently advised,

The amendment to Rules 607.01, 607.02, 607.03, and 607.04 of the Local Rules of practice for the Kenton County Family Court is hereby approved.

This order shall be effective as of the date of this order and shall remain in effect until further orders of this court.

Entered this the 8th day of June 2020.

CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN D. MINTON, JR.

AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE
OF THE
16th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
KENTON FAMILY COURT DIVISION

In accordance with Rule 903.07, which allows for the modification, repeal or alteration of the Rules upon concurrence of all Judges on the Kenton Family Court and approval by the Chief Justice of the Kentucky Supreme Court, the Rules of Court Practice and Procedure for the 16th Judicial Circuit, Family Court Division, Kenton County, are hereby amended as written herein.

The following rule shall be added:

607. Child Support in Dependency, Neglect and Abuse Matters

607.01 Often child support orders are sought in pending dependency, neglect and abuse (DNA) matters.

607.02 Child support orders in these cases create record retention issues as these cases are concluded, but the child support order will continue.

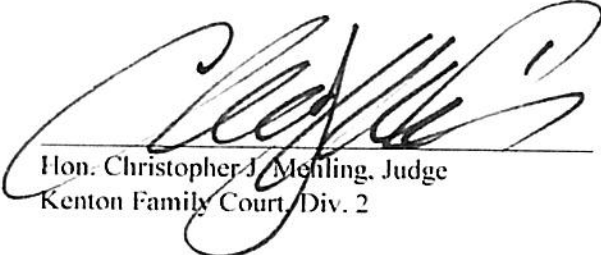

607.03 Therefore in every DNA case, if child support is to be ordered, the following shall apply:

- a. The order shall be temporary in nature only and shall terminate upon conclusion of the case;
- b. If there is a paternity case, the order shall be entered in the paternity case and not in the DNA case;
- c. If there is a civil (CI) case the order shall be entered in the civil case and not in the DNA case; and
- d. If there is no paternity or civil case the parties shall be ordered to cooperate with the Child Support Office to initiate the applicable action and have the order then entered in that case. Once the order is entered in the paternity or civil case, the child support order entered in the DNA case shall be vacated.

607.04 A case shall be considered concluded when any of the following occur:

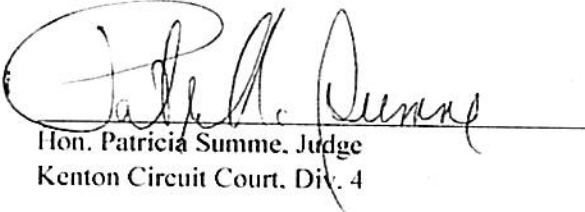

- a. The children are returned to the parent (s) or custodian(s);
- b. The goal is changed to adoption; or
- c. Permanent custody is granted to someone other than a parent or prior permanent custodian.

The above amendment is approved by all judicial officers of the circuit.

AMENDED RULE 903 Guardian Ad Litem/Friend of Court Practice

AMENDED RULE 903.01 Preface

- a. [unchanged]
- b. [unchanged]
- c. [unchanged]
- d. [unchanged]
- e. [unchanged]
- f. The Guardian ad Litem (GAL) is a child's representative appointed to participate actively as legal counsel for the child. The GAL should also undertake a thorough examination of the custodial circumstances. Unlike the Friend of the Court (FOC), the GAL is the child's agent and is responsible for making motions, for introducing evidence and for advancing evidence-based arguments on the child's behalf. The GAL should not file reports, testify, make recommendations, or otherwise put his own or her own credibility at issue. The GAL neither testifies (by filing a report or otherwise) nor is subject to cross-examination. The GAL represents the child's best interest, not necessarily the child's wishes, although the child's wishes are one of the statutory factors to be considered.
- g. A Friend of the Court (FOC) may be appointed pursuant to KRS 403.300. The FOC is an attorney or other professional assigned to "investigat[e] and report concerning custodial arrangements for the child." KRS 403.300(1). Unlike a GAL, this investigator serves as the court's agent, not the child's, and his or her role may include custodial recommendations. The investigator's file must be made available to the parties and the investigator himself or herself must be available to testify in court and be subject to cross-examination.
- h. An attorney should not be asked to serve simultaneously as both FOC and GAL. FCRPP 6(2)(e) does not preclude the appointment of both a FOC and a GAL, although expenses may preclude appointment of both.

RULE 903.08 (NEW) Guardian Ad Litem Fees

- a. This Court is responsible for approving Guardian ad Litem (GAL) fees for individuals appointed in Dependency, Neglect and Abuse (D.N.A.) cases (KRS 620.100), for cases in which a voluntary termination of parental rights occurs (KRS 625.041), in cases in which an involuntary termination of parental rights is sought (KRS 625.080), and in cases of adoption (KRS 199.470).
- b. Attorneys appointed in this role are entitled to attorney fees up to a maximum of $500.00. Pursuant to the Kenton Family Court's Local Rules, these attorneys are to bill at the rate of $100.00 dollars per hour.
- c. Attorney fee applications are submitted on form prepared by the Finance Cabinet., called FINGAL-1. In all cases in which an attorney has been appointed as a Guardian ad Litem and seeks payment for fees consistent with KRS 620.100, 625.041 or 625.080, a FINGAL-1 shall be submitted for payment no later than 6 months after the conclusion of the case.
- d. As to D.N.A. matters, this court announces the conclusion of each case and enters it on the docket sheet. Generally, a case is concluded upon completion of the Cabinet's work when children have not been removed from parental care, or when children are returned to parental care, or upon the awarding of permanent custody, or upon the change of the goal to adoption. Attorneys in these matters may submit FINGAL-1's throughout the progress

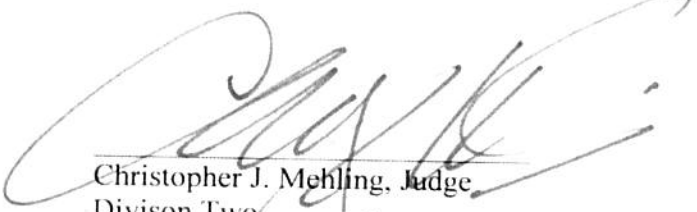

- of the case, but shall not submit a FINGAL-1 later than within 6 months of the case being concluded. The Court will not consider a FINGAL-1 submitted more than 6 months after the case being concluded.
- e. As to voluntary and involuntary termination of parental rights consistent with KRS 625.041 and 625.080, a FINGAL-1 shall be submitted within 6 months of a judgment being entered.
 - f. Each FINGAL-1 shall be accompanied by an itemized statement regarding the work done on the case. Such statement shall include the date of the work, the description of the work, and the time spent on each item of work. This shall be attached to the FINGAL-1.

RULE 905.01 (NEW) Confidential or Privileged Information

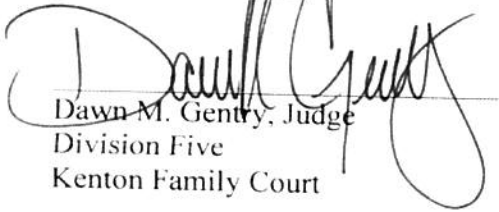

This rule applies to each and every case in the Kenton Family Court in which confidential or privileged documents are produced, filed, or introduced at trial. "Confidential or privileged documents" are any documents that include any information defined by KRE 506 (counselor-client privilege) or KRE 507 (psychotherapist-patient privilege), and private information that is protected by the federal HIPAA guidelines, including any information regarding medical care or payment history. In any such case, the parties shall comply with the following procedures:

- a. Except with the prior written consent of the Kenton Family Court, no privileged or confidential information shall be shown to, discussed with, or otherwise disclosed to any third party by any party or counsel for any purpose. "Third Party" includes any person other than the following:
 - 1. The counsel of record;
 - 2. Paralegals, associates and clerical staff of counsel;
 - 3. Expert witnesses engaged by the party.
- b. All parties to whom privileged or confidential information is disclosed are enjoined from using the same for any purpose other than the preparation for trial in this action.
- c. All privileged or confidential information described herein shall be designated as "confidential/privileged information" on the face of the document or item. If any privileged or confidential information is to be filed with the court, it shall be placed in an envelope marked "Confidential/Privileged" and sealed. It shall be the attorney's responsibility to seal the information and mark the envelope before filing.
- d. All parties are prohibited from copying any item containing privileged or confidential information without prior consent of the Court. It is the responsibility of each party and counsel to maintain privileged or confidential information in a secure and appropriate place and to restrict access to such material to persons permitted under this rule.
- e. All privileged or confidential information shall be returned to the Court at the close of the case and shall be sealed by the Clerk or the Court's staff.
- f. This rule shall continue in full force and effect after the completion of any case before the Kenton Family Court. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes relating to the provisions of this rule subsequent to the completion of the case and until such time as the parties have certified to the Court that the provisions of this rule have been fully complied with.

Upon recommendation of the Judges of the 16th Judicial Circuit, and being otherwise sufficiently advised,

The Rules of Court Practice and Procedure for the 16th Judicial Circuit, Family Court Division, Kenton County, are hereby approved. This order shall be effective as of the date of this Order, and shall remain in effect until further orders of this court.

Entered this the 11th day of April 2012.

CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN D. MINTON, JR.

RULES OF PRACTICE
OF THE
KENTON FAMILY COURT
16th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

RULE 1. INTRODUCTION / ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

101. Introduction

101.01. These are the Local Rules of Practice of the Family Court of the 16th Judicial Circuit. These rules supplement the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure (CP), the Kentucky Rules of Criminal Procedure (RCr), and the Kentucky Family Court Rules of Procedure and Practice (FCRPP). If these rules conflict with any of these rules, statute or other law of the United States and/or the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and/or Order of the Kentucky Supreme Court, at any time legally adopted, then, any such statute, law, rule or Order shall at all times prevail.

101.02. Pursuant to FCRPP 1(2) and KRS 23A.100, these Rules shall be applicable to the procedure and practice in all actions pertaining to dissolution of marriage; custody and support; visitation and timesharing; property division; maintenance; domestic violence; paternity; dependency, neglect or abuse; termination of parental rights; adoption; and status offenses, or any other matter exclusively within family law jurisdiction, except for any special statutory proceedings, which shall prevail over any inconsistent procedures set forth in these Rules.

101.03. Pursuant to FCRPP 1(3), self represented litigants shall be held to knowledge of these rules the same as parties represented by counsel.

102. Effective Date

These rules are adopted pursuant to the authority granted by SCR 1.040(3) of the Rules of the Supreme Court and shall apply with full force and effect to all actions filed or pending after, and their promulgation by order of the judges of the Kenton Family Court and certification of approval by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

103. Citation

These rules shall be cited as the Kenton County Family Local Rules of Practice (KCFLRP).

104. Assignment of Cases

104.01. Divisions

The Kenton Family Court shall consist of two numbered divisions, namely: Second Division and Fifth Division.

104.02. Assignment of Judges

Cases shall be assigned, as provided by these Rules, to the divisions of the Kenton Family Court so as to distribute the workload of the Court as equally as possible among the judges. The judge of one division of the Kenton Family Court may preside over and determine any case or question in any other division of the Kenton Family Court and sign any order or judgment submitted for entry in any other division of the Kenton Family Court when a judge of that division is sick, or absent from the county or is otherwise unavailable.

104.03. Assignment of Cases with Prior Contact

At the time of filing of a complaint, petition or other initiating pleading, the Clerk of the Court shall review the Court's records to determine whether the family involved has had any prior contact with the Kenton Family Court. If no contact is revealed, the case shall be assigned to a numerical division of the Kenton Family Court by random assignment, and scheduled for further proceedings in accordance with these rules. If prior contact is revealed, the case shall be assigned to the numerical division of the Kenton Family Court which issued the most recent order concerning the family. In the event that there is only a Domestic Violence (D) case in the system, it shall never control for assignment; only J, CI or AD cases shall control.

104.04. Transfer of Cases

After a case has been assigned to a division of Kenton Family Court, the judge thereof may for good cause transfer the case by written order from the division when: (1) there has been a recusal, or (2) the case has been transferred with the judge's consent. On recusal, the Clerk shall assign a case from one division of Kenton Family Court to the other division of Kenton Family Court. The Clerk shall file the order of transfer in the record and serve a copy upon all parties of record. Upon such transfer being made, the Clerk will make a proper endorsement upon the docket and the record.

104.05. Consolidation of Cases

a. When two (2) or more cases have been filed in different divisions of the Kenton Family Court, the Court may consolidate the cases for the purpose of a hearing. In such a situation, the cases will be consolidated to the division where the low number case is, or the division that is already handling matters with that family, to fulfill the "one family one court" purpose of Family Court. If it is later determined that consolidation is not proper or not in the best interest of the parties, the judge of that division may Order that the case be unconsolidated and return the case back to the original division. Also see reference to KCFLRP 104.03.

b. Pursuant to FCRPP 2(2), when actions concerning the same subject matter are filed in different circuits, the first action filed shall be the controlling action, subject to transfer by the court of that circuit on a motion for forum non conveniens or other appropriate legal grounds. A motion for transfer shall be filed prior to or with the response. On notice to the parties, the courts in both circuits may confer concerning the proper venue.

104.06. Registration of Lawyers

All attorneys or pro se litigants seeking to practice in the Kenton Family Court shall register their e-mail address with the Kenton County Family Court Judicial Secretary.

105. Holidays

Kenton County Family Court will follow the Kentucky Court of Justice Holiday Schedule on the COJ website at : <http://courts.ky.gov/research/holidayschedule.htm>

106. Official Forms

All official AOC forms as set forth in these Rules are listed numerically in Appendix A to these rules. These forms may be found on the AOC website, <http://courts.ky.gov/forms/>.

107. Orders

107.01. Preparation and Endorsement

a. When a ruling is made or opinion rendered, an order or judgment in conformity therewith shall be prepared by the movant or as directed by the Court and signed by counsel for all parties thereto as being in conformity to the ruling or opinion, and shall be presented to the Court within fourteen (14) days following the date of the hearing or trial.

b. All Orders tendered must contain a "Have Seen" endorsement of all other attorneys of record. This endorsement shall constitute an acceptance by said counsel only that the order or judgment is in conformity with the ruling of the Court. Should counsel for any party refuse to endorse the Order "Have Seen," counsel who prepared it shall file the Order with the Court, together with a certification that it was tendered to counsel who refused to make the endorsement and the date of such tender. The Court shall enter the Order after the expiration of five (5) (Saturday, Sunday and legal holidays excluded) days from the time it was filed, unless counsel who refused to make the endorsement shall have filed written exceptions to it and set such exceptions for hearing before the Court at the earliest practicable time.

c. In the event counsel disagree on whether a proposed order is in conformity with the judge's ruling, counsel shall notify each other of the disparity, and within five (5) business days of notice, shall review the video tape of the hearing, and if still in disagreement, counsel shall tender a joint cover letter to the judge with both proposed orders attached thereto for entry by the Court. The cover letter shall reference the tape citation to the judge's ruling.

d. Proposed orders shall not be filed or submitted with a motion except all Motions to Withdraw as Counsel shall be accompanied with an Order to Withdraw.

e. Each judge, at their discretion, may ask that Orders or Agreed Orders be electronically mailed to the judge. In this event, the attorney designated as the preparer of the Order shall either fax, e-mail, or mail a copy of the Order to opposing counsel for their "Have Seen." If/when opposing counsel authorizes signature on the Order, the attorney preparing the Order shall indicate both signatures on the Order prior to e-mailing the Order to the judge. No other correspondence shall be attached to the e-mail except for the Order. If the Judge makes changes to the Order, the Judge shall remove the "Have Seen" from the Order in order to indicate that the Judge has made a change to the Agreement and shall also remove the "Prepared By."

107.02. Status Quo Orders

At the initial court appearance, the court may enter an order on AOC-237, Status Quo Order, as authorized and described by FCRPP 2(5).

107.03. Agreed Orders

If an agreed order is submitted signed by counsel for all parties affected, or if the court is notified by both counsel or pro se parties that an agreement has been reached, counsel need not attend the call of the docket and the Agreed Order shall be tendered within fourteen (14) days of the date the Motion is scheduled to be heard by the court. Any Agreed Order regarding child support must comply with FCRPP 9 and have a Child Support Worksheet attached.

107.04. Show Cause Orders

a. To procure a show cause order, a motion supported by a sufficient affidavit showing that applicant is entitled to the order must be filed.

b. When this motion and affidavit are filed, an Order may be issued ex parte which shall not come on for a hearing sooner than five (5) days from the date it is served, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The Respondent shall appear on the date noticed for hearing, but may be entitled to a continuance if served less than five (5) days from the date noticed.

c. No order shall come on for hearing unless it has been served on the person named in the Order by an Officer authorized to serve a summons. The Order shall contain a short statement of the grounds for its issuance and the following statement: IF YOU FAIL TO APPEAR AT THE HEARING, AN ORDER FOR YOUR ARREST WILL ISSUE.

108. Exhibit Retention and Disposal

108.01. The Clerk shall take immediate custody of all exhibits introduced and retain same until disposed pursuant to other sections in this rule.

108.02. In all family cases the Clerk shall notify the attorneys for the parties that exhibits introduced during any proceeding shall be picked up within 30 days after the time for appeal has expired. If the attorneys do not pick up the exhibits within that time, the Clerk shall dispose of the exhibits pursuant to the Court of Justice Records Retention Schedule of the Administrative Office of the Courts or as ordered by the Court.

108.03. Exhibits that are too bulky to be included with the transcript on appeal shall be retained by the Clerk until the final appeal has been decided after which they shall be disposed in accordance with the foregoing procedure.

108.04. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, the parties with the Court's approval may agree in a family case for an exhibit or exhibits to be returned to a party or other entity and to be retained by the party or other entity pursuant to the agreement of the parties.

108.05. Custody evaluations shall be kept confidential in a separate file in the offices of the Kenton Family Court.

109. Retention of Audio and Digital Recordings

109.01. Videotapes or digital recordings from Family Court proceedings shall be retained by the Clerk in the manner consistent with the Court of Justice Records Retention Schedule.

110. Default Judgment

110.01. In all cases of default, all applicable requirements in FCRPP 3(1)(a)(i) shall apply with the addition of an affidavit with the attorney's certificate that no answer or pleadings have been received by counsel, and that notice of hearing or submission has been served on the opposing party in compliance with FCRPP 3(2).

110.02. If the party in default has failed to appear in the action, the motion for default need not appear on a docket and no notice thereof need be given to the party against whom judgment by default is sought. A Notice of Final Hearing shall then be filed with the Court Clerk.

110.03. If the party in default has appeared in the action, the motion shall appear on a docket and the party in default, or if the party is appearing by representative, the party's representative, shall be served with written notice of the motion at least 72 hours prior to the noticed docket.

111. Legal Briefs and Memoranda

Legal briefs or memoranda shall be filed of record in the Clerk's office. Copies of cases cited therein should not be filed with the Clerk's office, but should be provided directly to the Court along with a copy of the brief or memorandum.

112. Answering Interrogatories or Requests

When propounding interrogatories and requests upon a pro se litigant or upon written request of counsel, the propounder of interrogatories or requests shall leave adequate room for reply between questions. The propounder of the interrogatories or requests shall provide opposing counsel upon request a copy of said interrogatories and requests when possible via e-mail.

113. Filing of Depositions

Originals of interrogatories or requests for admissions shall not be filed in the court record unless offered as proof. The attorney who propounded the interrogatories or requests for admissions shall be the custodian of the record for the originals, and shall present them when directed by the court or at the request of any party.

114. Dismissal of Action for Failure to Prosecute

Pursuant to CR 77.02(2), when any action has remained on a docket for one (1) year without any step being taken indicating an intention to prosecute, the action may be dismissed for want of prosecution on motion of either party or on the Court's own motion.

202. Form and Notice of Motion

202.01. Form of Motion

a. Unless a motion may be heard ex parte or a rule allows otherwise, all motions to be heard shall be noticed for hearing, original filed with the Clerk, and copies served by mail, hand delivery, or facsimile on all parties. The notice of the hearing shall specify the date, time, and place for the hearing.

b. A motion to compel discovery, for a protective order, or for sanctions may be filed pursuant to CR 26 and/or CR 37 only if counsel are unable to resolve between themselves the discovery dispute. Counsel has the duty to make a good faith effort to resolve any disputes which arise in the course of discovery. The moving party shall attach to the motion a certification of counsel that he or she has attempted to resolve the dispute and that they have been unable to do so. The certification should detail the attempts of counsel to resolve the dispute.

202.02. Noticing of Motion

An attorney should respect opposing counsel's schedule by seeking an agreement on the date to notice a motion rather than merely serving notice. In the event that an attorney is notified by opposing counsel that he or she is unavailable due to a conflict for any motion that is not of an emergency nature, the attorney having filed the motion shall agree to continue the motion or obtain an alternate hearing date that is mutually acceptable to both counsel.

203. Deadlines for Serving and Filing Motions

203.01. Motions to be heard on the Domestic Relations docket must be filed no later than 4:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding the Domestic Relations docket designated on the notice, unless the Court has given a party leave to file the motion at another time to be served on opposing counsel or a pro-se litigant by fax, e-mail or hand-delivery no later than the following Thursday before the Motion is to be heard.

203.02. It is the obligation of each attorney, or each party if unrepresented by an attorney, to ascertain whether a motion docket has been canceled or rescheduled by the Court.

203.03. Pre-Rulings are the Judge's initial ruling to a Motion. The Judge may grant or deny the Motion, inform the attorneys to contact the Court to schedule a hearing, or set the Motion as "to be called" at the Motion Docket time.

903. Guardian Ad Litem Rules of Practice

903.01. Preface

a. Children are non sui juris.¹ Absent legislation which is constitutionally appropriate under the seventh part of the Kentucky Constitution, section 59, and other pertinent provisions of law, it shall be the policy of the Kenton Family Court to respect that important status and thereby promote the safety and care of children whose well-being is involved in litigation before this Court. When appointed as Guardian Ad Litem (GAL) for a child pursuant to a provision of the Kentucky Unified Juvenile Code or otherwise, it shall be the duty of that appointee to advocate for the client's best interest.

b. A GAL shall act in the capacity of attorney for a child. A GAL stands in the child's place to determine what the child's best interests and defense demand. Although a GAL does not have the powers of a regular guardian under KRS 387.010 et. seq., a GAL fully represents the child and is endowed with similar powers for purposes of the litigation at hand. Therefore, the GAL is both a fiduciary and lawyer for the child, and, in a sense, the representative of the child.

c. Statements made by the GAL for a child to the Kenton Family Court, whether during a hearing or in a motion or memorandum or otherwise, are presumptively acts of speaking legally on behalf of the child or advocacy or both; they are neither evidence nor an implicit claim of expertise of any kind. A GAL for a child shall not be called as a witness during litigation in which that lawyer is representing a child.

d. There shall be no requirement of a formal written report to be filed by the ¹ Meaning that children lack legal age and capacity. See Black's Law Dictionary (8th ed. 2004).

GAL as a recommendation to the Kenton Family Court. The GAL shall make recommendations to the Court during hearings or otherwise in a manner that will present those recommendations to all litigants.

e. A GAL for a child shall not be required to complete a custody evaluation. Statements by a GAL regarding the award of custody and collateral matters shall not be regarded as a custody evaluation.

903.02. Practice Guidelines²

a. Settlement Letter/Joint Meeting

Prior to the final hearing in a case in which a GAL has been appointed, any litigant may move for a Joint Meeting between the GAL, the parties and their counsel to discuss the settlement of the case and to request that the GAL send opposing counsel a Settlement Letter outlining how the case might be settled. The Joint Meeting discussion may be conducted in conjunction with a pretrial conference to secure access to the presiding Judge for all parties at the same time. If sustained, the Joint Meeting may include what the GAL intends to say on behalf of the child, the efforts of the GAL to date, and the propriety of the GAL making other specified efforts. Discussion of extra, specified efforts by the GAL shall take into consideration the financial reasonableness of any such request.

b. Affidavit of Due Diligence

Prior to the final hearing in which a GAL is appointed, any litigant may move for an Affidavit of Due Diligence to state the number of hours that have been expended in the case, the functions that the GAL has completed, the tasks that have been performed, and the fee that the GAL has requested. In the absence of such a motion, a GAL may choose to tender an Affidavit of Due Diligence and use that opportunity to provide details about the case and thereby state his or her efforts in a clear context.

903.03. Counsel Roster

a. Appointment

There shall be created by the approval of these Rules by the Supreme Court of Kentucky, a roster of attorneys called the KRS 620 Guardian Ad Litem and Appointed Counsel Roster (herein referred to as "Roster") to serve as GALs and separate counsel pursuant to the provisions of KRS 620.100.

² In ruling on the merits of these motions the Judges of the Kenton Family Court shall be mindful of the duty of a Guardian Ad Litem to exercise independent judgment. A Guardian Ad Litem must make his or her own decisions about a particular case and litigants may not dictate when or how the decisions of the Guardian Ad Litem are made.

b. Application for Appointment

Pursuant to the enactment of these Rules, all eligible attorneys who wish to serve as GALs and be Roster members, including those who are currently or have previously acted in this capacity, will need to (re)apply for membership each year. The term for appointment is one year expiring November 1 each and every year or until a successor is appointed. The Court will designate and maintain the Roster's membership. The initial number of members shall be seven (7) for each division. This number and the designated members are subject to revision or removal by the Court.

c. Obligations of Roster Members

Persons eligible for service on the Roster shall meet the following obligations:

1. They must be in attendance and available for appointment during the first calls of new cases as often as the Judges of Kenton Family Court shall require.
2. They must average three (3) hours of approved educational programs per year.
3. They shall attend a basic GAL seminar provided through the Administrative Office of the Courts. Should that particular training cease to be offered, then another such training approved by the Administrative Office of the Courts may be substituted.

d. Special Duty of Roster Members for Dependency, Neglect, and Abuse and Termination of Parental Rights

1. The attorney who represents or has represented a parent or child in a Dependency, Neglect and Abuse case, unless objected to by that parent, should also counsel and if necessary, represent him or her in the Termination of Parental Rights action.
2. When there is no pending termination of parental rights litigation in the Kenton Family Court and when a parent wants to voluntarily give up his or her parental rights, the Roster member who is involved in the proceeding, if asked by the parent, shall within a reasonable time counsel him or her. That Roster member shall advise about legal issues arising in a voluntary termination of parental rights case and try to ascertain whether such a relinquishment would be made with understanding of what it entails and without improper coercion. Thereafter, if the parent wishes to surrender parental rights to a child or children, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services ("Cabinet") shall be notified so that it may be ascertained whether the Cabinet is willing to be involved in such litigation or in collateral involuntary termination of parental rights litigation and whether it is feasible for an appropriate attorney's fee to be paid. If both the parent and the Cabinet are receptive to a voluntary termination of parental rights and if statutory compensation for the Roster member appears to be available, then that member shall prepare and file a voluntary petition for termination of parental rights and he or she shall participate as counsel in that lawsuit and in any precautionary involuntary termination of parental rights lawsuit that is collateral to it. The Kenton Family Court will award that member of the Roster those attorney's fees under the Kentucky Unified Juvenile Code as are appropriate for services rendered both before and after filing of the petition.

3. Additionally, the attorney shall, having served as GAL or separate counsel, serve in the same capacity in a sequential involuntary termination of parental rights case if appointed by the Kenton Family Court.

903.04. Permanency Litigation Panel

There shall be created by the approval of these Rules by the Supreme Court of Kentucky, a panel of attorneys (herein referred to as "Permanency Litigation Panel") to serve as GALs who are entitled to serve as appointed counsel in Adoption, Dissolution of Marriage, Petition for Permanent Custody pursuant to KRS Chapter 403 or as Amicus Curiae in such proceedings. The number and initial membership of the Permanency Litigation Panel shall be decided after the application process described above in KCFLRP 903.03(b.) and are subject to removal by the Judges of the Kenton Family Court. Applications for the Permanency Litigation Panel shall be accepted year round. The obligations of the Permanency Litigation Panel are the same as the Roster members described above in KCFLRP 903.03(c.).

b. Special Rules Concerning the Permanency Litigation Panel and Child Custody Litigation

The Court, in its discretion, shall decide how to best protect the interests of any child or children involved in custody litigation. The Court may, sua sponte, appoint a member of the Permanency Litigation Panel as Amicus Curiae to serve the interests of justice. Any party involved in custody litigation may move the Court for appointment of a GAL.

The hours of service rendered with a brief description of the services rendered and reasonableness of the fee requested; and, (C.) That the action or proceeding has been concluded and date of disposition. 2. The award of attorney's fees in accordance with the attached fee schedule shall be limited to members of the pertinent group which is eligible for appointment, to wit, either Roster or Permanency Litigation Panel members.

d. Appointments

1. In each Panel, the priority of appointments shall be given to those members who have already had appointments in cases involving the family which is again involved in litigation.

The Court may choose to meet with the individuals or groups of the Roster and Permanency Litigation Panel at its discretion.⁴

g. Fee Schedule

a. All practicing attorneys who are licensed to practice law before the Supreme Court of Kentucky are eligible to apply for and be placed on a rotating list, maintained by the Judges of the Kenton Family Court pursuant to CR 4.07. Upon rendering the Warning Order Report as required by CR 4.07, the Warning Order Attorney shall be entitled to a fee, as authorized by the Kentucky Civil Rules, and as set forth within these Rules and be taxed as costs in the proceeding. Pursuant to KRS 403.735 and KRS 456.030, and in compliance with Family Court Rule of Practice and Procedure Section IV, this local protective order protocol is established to ensure twenty-four hour accessibility to emergency protective orders (EPOs) and temporary interpersonal protective orders (TIPOs) and to establish written procedures for matters in which there may be joint jurisdiction between the Circuit/Family and District Courts.

I. Uniform Protocol for Handling Cases

- A. All petitions requested, completed and signed by persons seeking protection under KRS Chapter 403 or KRS Chapter 456 shall be made on form AOC-275.1, and shall be accepted and filed with the court. KRS 403.725, KRS 456.030.
- B. All protective order cases must be processed consistent with the rules and procedures set forth in the Kentucky Circuit Court Clerk's Manual.
- C. All cases will be assigned a "D" case number with the appropriate trailer number within the court case management system and may not be consolidated with any other case type.
- D. "No drop" policies which place limitations on a petitioner's right to modify or withdraw a petition for a protective order are not permitted. Pursuant to KRS 403.740 and KRS 456.060, any orders for relief issued directing or prohibiting any other actions that the court believes will be of assistance in eliminating future acts of domestic violence and abuse, dating violence and abuse, stalking, or sexual assault shall not order the petitioner to take any affirmative action.
- E. Cases may be reassigned within the judicial circuit and, pursuant to FCRPP 12, a case may be transferred to another circuit if there is a pending dissolution or custody matter. If reassignment or transfer occurs, the issuing judge shall re-issue a summons until the matter may be heard by the receiving judge.
- F. The court shall review a petition for a protective order immediately upon its filing. KRS 403.730, KRS 456.040. Petitioners shall not be sent away or left waiting for extended periods of time. Petitions should be reviewed within two hours of presentation to a judge or trial commissioner unless impossible due to no judge or trial commissioner being available.

II. Twenty-four Hour Accessibility

- A. The following agencies and officers are authorized to take protective order petitions and administer oaths to petitioner during regular business hours:

The Circuit Court Clerk and any Deputy Circuit Court Clerk.

- B. The following agencies and officers are authorized to take protective order petitions and administer oaths to petitioner after regular business hours and weekends:

The Family Court Judges shall alternate every week as to who is "on duty." The Clerk or Deputy Clerk shall present the petition electronically to the Judge on duty and, if the on duty Family Court Judge cannot be reached within one hour, present the petition electronically to all District and Circuit Court Judges.

- D. Upon receipt of a petition after regular business hours, the authorized agency/officer shall present the petition to:

The Family Court Judge on call.

- E. Petitions will be reviewed within one hour of presentation to a judge or trial commissioner unless it is impossible due to the unavailability of a judge or trial commissioner.

III. Assignment of Cases

- A. Pursuant to KRS 403.735 and KRS 456.030, jurisdiction over petitions filed under this chapter is concurrent between district, circuit, and family court.
- B. The judge reviewing a petition for an order of protection shall indicate in the "Court Action" section of the petition whether the resulting action is a domestic violence action under KRS Chapter 403 or an interpersonal protective order action under KRS Chapter 456.
- C. The circuit clerk shall assign interpersonal protective order cases to the District Court Domestic Violence Docket.
- D. The schedule for hearings on protective orders is as follows:

Family Court, Second Division: Wednesday at 9:00 a.m., every other week.
Family Court, Fifth Division: Wednesday at 9:00 a.m., every other week.
District Court, All Divisions: Monday at 10:30 a.m., every week.

Other dates may be scheduled periodically by the Courts as needed due to holidays, large dockets, etc. These dates shall be noticed in advance by the Court Judicial Secretary and shall be posted on the Courthouse monitors.

- E. Cases may be reassigned or transferred between courts if it is determined that there are other actions pending or circumstances indicate that review by the other court is proper. KRS 403.725, KRS 456.030. If reassignment or transfer occurs, the issuing judge shall re-issue a summons until the matter may be heard by the receiving judge.

IV. Contempt Proceedings

- A. Pursuant to KRS 403.763 and KRS 456.180, civil and criminal proceedings for violation of a protective order for the same violation of a protective order shall be mutually exclusive. Once a criminal or contempt proceeding has been initiated, the other shall not be undertaken regardless of the outcome of the original proceeding.

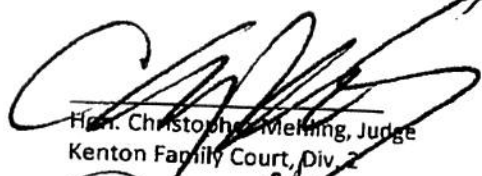

- B. Petitioners seeking to initiate contempt proceedings should contact:

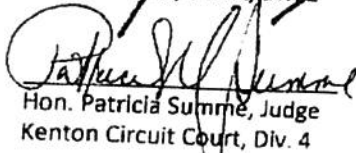

The district clerk's office. The party wishing to file a contempt motion shall fill out the motion located in the district clerk's office. This motion will be presented to a Family Court Judge along with the file for review.

*New Year's Holiday is governed by the year in which New Year's Day falls. It is not governed by the year in which New Year's Eve falls.

In the event of a conflict, the following is the order of precedence: 1. Holidays; 2. Extended periods; 3. Weekends; and 4. Midweek days.

Model Time-Sharing/Visitation Guidelines

The following schedules are suggested as guidelines for the parents and the court in establishing time-sharing/visitation schedules. Each case will present unique facts or circumstances which shall be considered by the court in establishing a time-sharing/visitation schedule and the final schedule established by the court or agreed to by the parents may or may not be what these guidelines suggest.

1. The time-sharing/visitation schedule set by the court for holidays, school breaks and summer break should control over regularly scheduled time-sharing/visitation time, even if this allows successive time-sharing/visitation periods.
2. The parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be responsible for timely picking up the child(ren) at the beginning of the time-sharing/visitation period and returning the child(ren) in a timely manner at the end of the time-sharing/visitation period.
3. Times in a time-sharing/visitation schedule should be set in the time zone where the child primarily resides.
4. For time-sharing/visitation times pertaining to school holidays, whether in a formal school or home-schooled, the school holidays where the child(ren) primarily resides should apply.
5. Each parent should provide to the other parent contact numbers and addresses (unless a domestic violence order is in effect) where the child(ren) can be located during their scheduled time-sharing/visitation time.
6. The parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be given a minimum of every other weekend as time-sharing/visitation time with the child(ren) and one midweek overnight time-sharing/visitation. The parent having such time-sharing/visitation should be responsible for delivering the child(ren) to school, child care, or the other parent's home as specifically ordered by the court or agreed to by the parents.
7. Holidays
 - a. If a holiday is celebrated on a Monday following a parent's regularly scheduled time-sharing/visitation, then that parent should be permitted to extend parenting time until 6:00 p.m. on the holiday, unless the parents agree otherwise.
 - b. Other holidays
 - i. Parent exercising time-sharing/visitation
 1. During the first full year after divorce/custody proceedings have been filed, the non-residential parent should have time-sharing/visitation scheduled as follows:
 - a. New Year's Day and July 4th from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.
 - b. Thanksgiving, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day school ends until 3:00 p.m. Thanksgiving Day.

- c. Christmas/Winter Break, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day school ends until noon on December 25.
 - d. Holidays not listed that are of special interest to the family should be assigned to the non-residential parent in time amounts similar to those in a, b and c above.
 - 2. Holiday time not scheduled above to the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be with the other parent.
 - 3. Mother's Day and Father's Day, regardless of any conflict with the above proposed schedule, should be spent with the appropriate parent from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.
 - 4. Fall Break or Spring Break, as allowed by the child(ren)'s school calendar, should be scheduled for the parent with whom the child(ren) primarily resides in the first full year after the divorce/custody proceedings are filed from 6:00 p.m. the day school ends until 6:00 p.m. the following Friday. If school breaks are longer than one week due to the school schedule, the parent with whom the child(ren) primarily resides should be scheduled for the first half of the break and the other parent should be scheduled for the last half.
 - 5. Summer Break should be scheduled to allow the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation a minimum of two periods of two consecutive weeks during the Summer Break. Each parent should provide the time periods he or she desires to the other parent before the end of the school year, or at least 60 days in advance of the requested time. If a child(ren) must attend summer school in order to pass to the next grade, summer time-sharing/visitation should not prevent school time.
 - 6. Birthdays: Unless the birthday falls on a regularly scheduled time-sharing/visitation day, the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be scheduled for birthday time from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. If it is a regular day of the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation where the child(ren) does not primarily reside, the other parent should have birthday time from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.
 - ii. Alternating years: For each year thereafter, the time-sharing/visitation set out above should alternate between the parent with whom the child(ren) primarily resides and the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation.
8. Waiting/Tardiness/Cancellations
- a. In the event either parent will be more than 30 minutes late, due to reasonable unforeseen circumstances, to pick up the child(ren), he or she should provide direct

- notice to the other parent or a designated third party and make suitable arrangements for exchange of the child(ren).
- b. If time-sharing/visitation is missed through no fault of the parent, and reasonable notice has been given, that time should be made up, if reasonable to do so.
 - c. If the child(ren) is ill, the parent who has the child should give 24-hour notice, if possible, to allow for appropriate plans to be made.
9. Transportation: The parents should transport the child(ren) in a safe manner, which includes utilizing the appropriate child restraint systems and not driving under the influence of intoxicants.
