2024-16

IN RE: APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE WORKING GROUP

ORDER

On February 12, 2024, Governor Andy Beshear entered Executive Order 2024-159 and created, pursuant to an agreement between the Commonwealth of Kentucky and The Council of State Governments, the Domestic Violence Working Group.

In accordance with Executive Order 2024-159, the Chief Justice appoints the following persons to serve as members of the Domestic Violence Working Group:

Ashley Clark
Executive Officer of the Department of Family & Juvenile Services
Administrative Office of the Courts

Brandi H. Rogers
Judge, 5th Judicial Circuit, Family Division

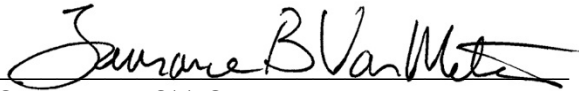

In accordance with Executive Order 2024-159, the Chief Justice appoints the following person to serve as a member of the Domestic Violence Working Group with a term ending January 31, 2028:

Crystal Happy-Clay
Office of the Fayette County Sheriff

Further, due to the Kentucky Constitution's strict separation of powers provisions, Ky. Const. §§ 27–28, the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts and the persons appointed by the Chief Justice shall serve on the Domestic Violence Working Group in an advisory capacity only and shall not formally vote on any matter which may implicate the constitutional prohibition.

ENTERED: May 15, 2024.

CHIEF JUSTICE
