If a document is not eligible for eFiling, it may be conventionally filed.

Effective December 1, 2022, the Circuit Clerk shall reject and return any conventionally filed document that is eligible for eFiling in these case types, except that, attorneys who have not obtained certification to electronically file in the KY eCourts eFiling application and are unable to do so in time to comply with a jurisdictional deadline shall be permitted to file an eligible document(s) if accompanied by an affidavit of necessity.

<Signature and title of officer administering the oath>”

Judges, commissioners, and other court personnel are strongly encouraged to electronically file orders, notices, and other documents in all case types considering system availability and limitations.

This order supplements Administrative Order 2022-22 regarding Mandatory Electronic Filing in Selected Case Types in the Circuit and District Court of the Commonwealth.

Entered this 19th day of September 2022.

All sitting. All concur.
