

Office of Communications

INTERNSHIP NOW AVAILABLE

The Office of Communications in the Administrative Office of the Courts seeks a creative intern to join its team. The AOC is the operational arm of Kentucky's Judicial Branch. The communications office is responsible for producing high-quality content that helps the public understand and use resources provided by the courts.

Job Duties

The full-time, three-month internship in Frankfort, Ky., offers real-world experience in writing, graphic design, photography and videography through a hybrid schedule. The internship is customized to align intern's interests and strengths. Responsibilities are matched to their abilities and goals.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled at the university (undergraduate or graduate).
- Experience in one or more areas: broadcasting, communications, graphic design, marketing, photography, videography or writing.
- Must have transportation.
- Resume and portfolio preferred.

How to apply

- Application form: <https://forms.office.com/g/19usM1QGnh>.
- Visit, kcoj.info/CommunicationsIntern for more information.
- For potential financial support, please visit: <https://gradschool.uky.edu/kentucky-graduate-internship-scholarship>.

Deadline

- Applications must be submitted by Monday, March 31, 2025.
- Questions, contact jamesbodeyhannah@gmail.com.

@KentuckyCourts

