CONFLICT OF INTEREST

In some instances, being a reviewer on a case can present a conflict of interest. Pursuant to KRS 620.260, I understand that I will not be allowed to review a case if any of the following apply:

1. I am a member of the family being reviewed;
2. I am a neighbor or friend of any family member or foster parent in the case;
3. I am actively involved in a professional, business, or personal relationship with any family member or foster parent in the case (Examples include but are not limited to: a teacher who presently has a family member in class; a social worker, nurse, doctor, or minister actively working with family members; an attorney who represents a family member; or a proprietor who has any family member as a tenant);
4. I am involved in any other relationship with any family members that would make me privy to information about the family that may influence my perception of the case or the people in the case;
5. I am a foster parent and the child(ren) placed in my home is(are) being reviewed; or
6. I have prior knowledge of the case that makes me feel uncomfortable in any way; however, I understand that if I feel uncomfortable about the case but have relevant information, I may share that information with the board member reviewing the file.

Oath of Confidentiality

I, _____, swear or affirm to keep confidential the information reviewed by the Board and its actions and recommendations in individual cases. I will not discuss this information with anyone other than the Citizen Foster Care Review Board members, staff, all officers of the court, and the judge. Additionally, I will not post or comment on social media regarding any information about a case I reviewed. I understand that an intentional violation of confidentiality as outlined in KRS 620.210 is punishable as a crime under KRS Chapter 522, Abuse of Public Office.
