AMENDED ORDER

IN RE: KENTUCKY COURT OF JUSTICE RESPONSE TO COVID-19 EMERGENCY: EXPANSION OF COURT PROCEEDINGS

In addition to those rights provided by the U.S. Constitution, Section 14 of the Kentucky Constitution guarantees the citizens of this Commonwealth that “[a]ll courts shall be open, and every person for an injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial or delay.”

In light of the declared federal and state emergencies and considering the need to balance access to the courts and the constitutional rights guaranteed to the people of this Commonwealth with the health and safety of court employees, elected officials, and the public during the COVID-19 emergency, the Supreme Court, under Section 116 of the Constitution and Supreme Court Rule 1.010, hereby orders Administrative Order 2020-44 replaced in its entirety as follows:

A. JURIES

1. Postponements and Excusals. Juror qualification forms shall be reviewed prior to the first day of service and any jurors who meet the following criteria shall have their service postponed or be excused prior to reporting.

 - b. Jurors who are unable to wear a facial covering because doing so would pose a serious threat to their health or safety shall have their jury service postponed to a later date. The court should document the reason as COVID-19 for the postponement of service.
 - c. Jurors who were laid off, became unemployed, or otherwise suffered an economic loss due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and who show they would suffer further economic loss as a result of jury service, shall be excused for undue hardship.

2. Petit Jurors and Jury Trials. Criminal jury trials may resume after August 1, 2020, with in-custody trials taking priority over all other matters. Civil jury trials may resume after October 1, 2020.

Jury trials shall only resume if the trial judge determines in his or her discretion, after having considered local public health conditions and the health and safety requirements established by the Supreme Court, that it is advisable.

- a. Jury trials and voir dire must be conducted at a court facility in the county, unless otherwise authorized by the Supreme Court in accordance with KRS 26A.100.

 - h. Access to view jury trials must be provided to members of the public and media. However, in-person viewing shall be subject to the social distancing, capacity limitations, and other restrictions set out in this Order or any other subsequent Order issued by this Court. If there is no room for members of the public or media to be inside the courtroom, the court shall provide access to view the trial by live audio or video or by digital recording.
3. Grand Jury Proceedings. A grand jury may be conducted remotely via available telephonic or video technology, subject to applicable Rules of Criminal Procedure. The indictment may be returned to the circuit judge using available technology. The Commonwealth's Attorney is encouraged to give priority to cases where the defendant is in custody and proceedings have been tolled by the Supreme Court's response to the COVID-19 emergency.

- c. Existing grand jury panels may be extended at the discretion of the court, subject to the 20-day limitation set out in AP Part II, Sec. 19(3).
 - d. If an existing grand jury panel is unable to be extended, juror education shall be conducted by one of the following formats, as directed by the chief circuit judge:
 - i. The AOC-1027 shall be filed with every eviction filing, and the circuit court clerk shall reject any such filing unless it is accompanied by the AOC-1027. - a) Thirty days' notice to vacate is required prior to filing an action for eviction. The lessor of a "covered dwelling" shall not require the tenant to vacate until 30 days after the date on which the lessor provides the tenant with notice to vacate; and
 - b) Fees, penalties, or other charges are prohibited. The lessor of a "covered dwelling" shall not charge a tenant any fees, penalties, or other charges that accrued during the period between March 27, 2020, and July 25, 2020, when those fees, penalties, or other charges are related to nonpayment of rent.
- ii. In accordance with Section 4023 of the CARES Act, the following provisions shall apply to actions for eviction from "federally backed multi-family properties," as defined in subsection (f) of Section 4023, solely for nonpayment of rent or fees, penalties, or other charges related to nonpayment of rent:
- a) Evictions and notice to vacate are prohibited during the period of forbearance. Evictions from "federally backed multi-family properties" solely for nonpayment of rent or fees, penalties, or other charges related to nonpayment of rent are prohibited for the duration of the period during which the borrower has received forbearance of its mortgage loan payments, and notice to vacate shall not be issued until after the expiration of the forbearance.

 - c) Fees, penalties, or other charges are prohibited. The multi-family borrower shall not charge a tenant any fees, penalties, or other charges that accrued during the period of forbearance when those fees, penalties, or other charges are related to nonpayment of rent.

- c. Actions for eviction that were filed prior to March 27, 2020, are not subject to the CARES Act and, therefore, are not subject to the provisions of subsection b above.

 - i. At the initial hearing noticed by the summons, the parties must be verbally informed that funding agencies may be able to assist tenants with payment for some or all of the rent that is owed and assist landlords with recouping missed or late rent payments. Parties should also be informed that a judgment is not necessary to receive assistance.
 - ii. Following the initial hearing, all eviction proceedings shall be held in abeyance for fourteen days and rescheduled for the next available court date unless the landlord dismisses the complaint, with or without prejudice; a tenant who was properly served under KRS 383.210 or KRS 383.540 fails to appear; or the parties reach an agreement and file an AOC-218, Forcible Detainer Settlement Agreement, before the fourteen days expire.
 - iii. A request for a jury trial must be made within fourteen days of the initial hearing.
 - iv. To the extent possible, the court should require remote participation in eviction proceedings. If a party cannot appear remotely, in-person proceedings must be held in accordance with Administrative Order 2020-63.

The Chief Circuit Judge must ensure that the master commissioner is observing and enforcing the health and safety measures required by Administrative Order 2020-55.
